Swimming World Magazine's 2009, 2011 and 2012 Girls' National High School Champions, and 2008 and 2009 Boys' Independent School Champions.

For more than 100 years, Baylor School has been one of the leading college preparatory schools in the United States.

Located on a spectacular 670-acre campus, Baylor provides a challenging curriculum, featuring small classes and 19 AP courses.

Our swimming program produced an Olympic Gold Medalist, NCAA Champions, U.S. National Junior team members, numerous country's National Team members and High School All-Americans. Our swim teams won 50 Tennessee State Championships. Thirteen Baylor students competed in the 2011, '13, '15 and '17 World Junior Championships, and alumni competed in the World University Games and World Championships. Baylor graduates have gone on to attend top universities and have thrived academically.

Baylor's state-of-the-art Aquatic Center features a 50-meter by 25-yard pool and a $1.2 million sports performance center.

Head Coach Dan Flack has been named Tennessee Swimming Coach of the Year (either men's or women's) 15 times since 2006, coached Team USA at the 2011 and 2017 World Junior Championships, was Head Coach of Team USA at the Junior Pan Pacific Championships in 2018, and is one of a small list of high school coaches on the USA National Team Coaches list.

Website: www.bolles.org

The Bolles School is an independent, coeducational day and boarding college preparatory school founded in 1933. Bolles enrolls 1,600 students in grades Pre-K through 12 on four separate campuses. The Bolles Resident Life program enrolls students from around the world in grades 9-12.

The Bolles swimming program has a long history of outstanding success from youth through Olympic levels. Bolles and its year-round United States Swimming program, the Bolles Sharks, have developed many nationally and world-ranked swimmers, including 63 Olympians since 1972, earning 20 medals. Bolles girls' swimming has claimed 29 consecutive state titles and 33 titles overall, while Bolles boys' swimming has achieved a U.S. record 32 consecutive state titles and 41 titles overall.

The program facilitates training and stroke instruction in Bolles' 50-meter and 25-yard pools, as well as the Aquatic Center with dryland and weight training equipment.

Website: www.gulliverprep.org

Gulliver is a 501(c)(3) private, non-profit, independent coeducational nonsectarian day school with the mission to create an academic community devoted to educational excellence, with a personal touch, that fulfills each student's potential.

Located in Miami, the school provides a challenging academic curriculum featuring a wide variety of electives, AP and Honors courses and the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Programme. A Gulliver Prep education combines the best of the traditional college preparatory curriculum with 21st century approaches to teaching and learning. From PK through senior year, students learn to be informed, engaged and critically perceptive.

Gulliver Prep's Aquatic Center is a premier training and competition facility with a state-of-the-art Olympic-size pool. The school's swim teams and year-round USA Swimming program, the Gulliver Swim Club, are guided by Christopher George. Gulliver's girls' swim team won five straight 2A Florida State Championships from 2014-18, and the boys' swim team captured the state title in 2016 for the first time in program history. To date, the girls' swim team has recorded 30 individual state titles, while the boys' swim team has amassed 20 individual state championships.

Established in 2011, the Gulliver Swim Club is consistently ranked as a top team in South Florida.

Home to 1984 Olympic silver medalist Michele Richardson ('87) and 2003 Pan Am Games medalist Christina Swindle ('03), Gulliver boasts aquatics graduates who have gone on to compete at respected institutions such as the University of Florida, Vanderbilt and Harvard. Currently, Kelly Fertel ('16) is swimming professionally for the Cali Condors and preparing for the 2021 Olympic Trials.
